

Senior Web Developer

West Ryde, NSW

Koorong has a fantastic opportunity for a Senior Developer/Team Lead to join our friendly IT team. Based at West Ryde, this position has the unique and exciting blend of hands-on web development and leadership responsibilities.

Responsibilities:

- Leading and mentoring a team of staff and contractors.
- Management of the Koorong web site, it's associated systems and the Koorong app.
- Development and support of customer facing and internal applications as well as content management systems using a large variety of the latest technologies.

Key Criteria:

The suitable applicant will have University qualifications in Computer Science or similar, 5+ years web development experience and excellent programming skills. Staff management experience will be highly regarded.

Exposure to the following technologies is highly desirable:

- Strong HTML5, CSS including Foundation, Bootstrap or other CSS Frameworks.
- Core JavaScript, jQuery, AngularJS Frameworks.
- Web Standards and Accessibility/Responsive Design/Cross Browser Testing, Selenium, UI/UX testing.
- Web server administration – Nginx/ Apache/Tomcat.
- Google Analytics and SEO best practice.

Also highly advantageous is previous experience with:

- Java/JSP, MVC frameworks.
- AWS – EC2, RDS, S3, SQS and other related technologies.
- E-commerce and associated platforms.
- Designing mobile web and native apps (iOS and/or Android).

Applicants will need outstanding project management skills, be task focused, demonstrate good organisational skills, and have the ability to meet deadlines and work under pressure. You will also be able to utilise your excellent communication and interpersonal skills, being the pivotal role between the development team and other internal departments. You will need the natural ability to trouble-shoot and problem solve along with loads of initiative for innovative solutions. A keen understanding of digital marketing principles and emerging technologies is required.

Koorong is Australia's leading Christian resource centre. With 15 stores Australia-wide and a thriving website, we provide the largest range at the best prices. We strive for excellence in customer service with a servant heart. Join us in the exciting privilege of providing Christian resources to your local community and beyond, with life changing possibilities! Koorong is part of Bible Society Australia group.

TO APPLY

Send a resume with cover letter, noting your availability, to:

e: itjobs@koorong.com.au

Closing Date: 31 May 2016